

DR. PARKHURST'S PRISONERS.

The Six Saloon-Keepers Held for Excessive Violations.

In Court Lawyer Stacey Called the Doctor's Agent a Criminal.

Six liquor sellers were arraigned this morning before Justice McMahon in the Police court, charged by Dr. J. Parkhurst, President of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, and Agent Pierce, of the same society, with violation of the Excise law, in having sold liquor on Sunday last.

The prisoners were Thomas Lynch, of 113 Park row; John Meyers, barkeeper for J. Park, at 75 Park row; Joseph A. McMahon, of 30 Bowery; Thomas Cohen, barkeeper for "Silver Dollar," Smith, at 50 Essex street; Thomas Sullivan, of 45 Forsyth street; and Wendell, whose saloon is at the northwest corner of Fourth avenue and Twenty-fourth street.

The prisoners, all of whom were arrested and held last night, this morning received their bail bonds, each in the sum of $100, for examination at the Tombs at 2 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon.

There was a slight ripple of excitement among the prisoners, who secured the evidence against the prisoners, had sworn to the complaints.

Lawyer John Stacey, who appeared for Lynch, Cohen, Sullivan, McMahon, Cohen, and Pierce, if he had been arrested. He replied negatively.

"This is a criminal and you know it," he said. "The arrest of the six men last night is the direct outcome of Dr. Parkhurst's attack on the District-Attorney and the police, made from the pulpit of the Madison Square Presbyterian Church two weeks ago. At that time Dr. Parkhurst declared that this city was being run by a few bad men, and that many of the police were friends of the five-keepers."

Dr. Parkhurst yesterday called on District-Attorney Nicol, but the latter refused to deal with the matter unless he would retract what he said from the pulpit. This Dr. Parkhurst refused to do.

Through a friend who accompanied him, he stated to Mr. Nicol that he wanted to go before the Grand Jury with information about violations of the Excise law. The opportunity was given him, but the grand jury would not consider his evidence unless the persons complained of were arrested and personally held by a police officer.

Hence the warrants and arrests. Tombs officers are looking for three other saloon-keepers for whom they have warrants on the same charge.

PEACE IN INDIANAPOLIS.

Street Car Receiver Appointed and the Strike Practically Settled.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 1.—The street railway strike was practically settled at midnight when Judge Taylor, of the Superior Court, appointed Thomas Steele, the assistant superintendent recently discharged by President Frenzel, receiver of the company.

The petition for a receiver was filed by W. F. Pashback, who set out that he was a citizen of the city of Indianapolis, and that the citizens' company occupied the streets by reason of a franchise granted twenty-eight years ago; that it had recently performed its duty as a common carrier, and did so until Mr. Frenzel was elected president; that he had no experience in such business, and that he was wholly unqualified to manage the company, and as a result the people were deprived of their means of transit.

The petition then recited the causes of the strike and the decision of the Directors to stand by Frenzel, and said that a continuance of the strike would result in bloodshed and destruction of property; that the Directors were unable to operate the company, and as a result the people were deprived of their means of transit.

Receiver Steele immediately gave bonds in the sum of $100,000 and announced that he would start cars at 6 o'clock in the morning.

SANDBAGGED IN JERSEY CITY.

A Young Man Attacked and Robbed by an Unknown Footpad.

Patrick McGinnis, twenty-three years old, of 242 Wayne street, Jersey City, was found at 12:30 A. M. today lying insensible and showing evidences of having been sandbagged. He was taken to the station-house, where he partially regained his senses, and was afterwards taken home.

It was learned that McGinnis last night visited Washington street, and became somewhat intoxicated. When he left he was followed by a man whose name had not been learned, and who knocked him down by a blow on the back of the head with what is believed to have been a sandbag.

The assailant robbed McGinnis of $4.40 and escaped. He has not yet been arrested.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

Is the best remedy for colds, coughs, bronchitis, sore throat, la grippe, pneumonia, hoarseness, or other derangements of the vocal organs, throat, and lungs. Its record covers half a century and is gathered from all quarters of the globe. It is the favorite preparation with singers, actors, preachers, and public speakers. It soothes the inflamed membrane, promotes expectoration, and strengthens the voice. Taken at the first symptoms of consumption, it checks further progress of the disease, and even in the later stages, it eases coughing and induces repose. By reason of its great strength, it is the most economical medicine of the kind to be found anywhere in the world.

"We have been dealing in Ayer's Medicines for years, and have always found them to give the very best satisfaction. One of our customers, a lady, was afflicted for a long time with chronic bronchitis. In the summer of 1889, after having used various remedies without benefit, she tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and almost immediately she was relieved, and in a short time, cured."—R. S. VANDERBILT STOCKS RUN UP.

New England Also Rises on Enormous Transactions.

Important Development of Coal Combine Plans Awaited.

WALL STREET, Tuesday, March 1.—New England roused the place of the coals this morning advancing on enormous transactions from 57 to 54, on reports that some favorable developments will be given to the public in a few days. It is expected that the company will play a more important part in the new coal combination than the street has any idea of.

As the morning went along the Vanderbilts forged to the front, and they all sold at the highest figures yet attained.

The coals were feverish. Delaware & Hudson advanced 2, but quickly lost the improvement. Jersey Central, Lackawanna and Reading were all 1/2 to 3/4 per cent lower.

Distilling & Cattle Feeding fell off on the information of the animals by the United States authorities, but afterwards it recovered.

After midday the Vanderbilts became positively buoyant and carried everything else up with them.

STEWART ESTATE TAX SAVED.

Charles W. Clinch Gains $25,000 by a Court of Appeals Decision.

The Court of Appeals today affirmed the recent decision of the General Term of the Supreme Court in this city, holding that contingent estates were not taxable under the will of the late Charles W. Clinch. The estate of the late Charles W. Clinch, who died in 1889, was valued at $1,000,000. The court held that the contingent estates were not taxable under the will, and that the estate was worth $1,000,000.

The decision saves Mr. Clinch about $25,000.

Two Little Boy Thieves.

Ten-year-old John McKinnis, of 107 East One Hundred and Twenty-first street, and twelve-year-old Patrick Drury, of 223 East One Hundred and Twenty-first street, were today committed in Harlem Court for examination on the charge of robbing a show-case in front of Freedman's drug goods store, 2240 Third avenue. They are suspected of having committed several thefts of the kind in the last few weeks.

A LOVE REDIVIVUS.

James Degnan Supposed the Crusade to Be at an End.

His Fifteenth Street Den Reopened to Depraved Women.

They Flocked There Last Night and Were Warmly Welcomed.

The good results attendant upon THE EVENING WORLD's anti-dive crusade still continue, and show plainly that the closing up of their dens by the outlaws of New York was not simply a temporary move, but an enduring, lasting reform.

With one notable exception the dive-keepers whose names have frequently appeared in these columns still keep the dives annexed to their saloons closed, and in many cases the entire establishments themselves are dark and entirely deserted.

James Degnan, who was supposed to be at the end of his crusade, was seen last night at his den, which was warmly welcomed.
